CHAPTER XXXIV. EANTIME the agencies of the law were in charge of another situation which but now had arisen in the deatiny of the dynamic Gretzhoffen coin. There had been narder done but now over this coin. The city was exerting all its force usually sonployed in the preservation of life and property. Swiftly a cordon of troops and of the local gendarmerie had been summoned into action. The exits of the town were guarded. The gen-darmes filled the streets nearby, some guarding the crossings, others converging toward the point of greater interest, whence the alarm had come the Ritz hotel "What is this, monsfeur?" demanded the officer, as he approached the desk. his quick eyes glancing over every detall about him. "Hemain here, all of you. Let no one attempt escape. What is this, then?"

darmes filled the streets nearby, some

"We do not know, captain," began the clerk, who acted as spokesman." This maid brings the slarm; she declares a man has been found killed in one of our apartments."
"What room was it, monacur?"
"That belonging to a young American woman, a Miss Gray."
"Where is she."

"Where is she?"
"I do not know, captain. She was here but now. We did not see her enter, but saw her leave. She and her man come and go often—somewhat mysteriously, I must admit."
"When was she here last?"
"Within the hour, I was about to say."

And who was with her?"

"And who was with her?"
"Her man, whom I have just mentioned. They came in, apparently from the country, apparently from the country fro Sachio by this time had approached the door, and would have neen glad enough to pass out. Detained by the porter for a time, he now had met the gendarmes, who allowed no one to leave the place. The captain approached him.

"Monsieur, you r ust join us for a time," and led him toward the desk. where he resumed his questioning of the hotel force.

'is this the gentleman?" he inquired of the clerk. The latter nodded.
"What did this gentleman say?"

"He asked me where was the charming young woman, the American. He said he had known her before." "Has any one cise inquired for the young American lately? Has any one class been in her apartments?" The cierk considered for an instant. "One other, mensiour is capitaine,

Who-when was it?" "A gentieman whose name I dislike to speak in public."

"Speak; it is the law,"
"Very well, then, it was Monsieur le Comto Frederick of Gretzhoffen."

"The Count Frederick; when was "Ah, that was before the return of the young woman from an absence of several days."

The officer turned to his men. Those of you who remain," he said, 'will guard all these whom we have questioned here. Prevent all from leaving the hotel. I must go to find the Count Frederick himself and

THAT IS, something is wrong with baby, but we can't tell just what it is. All mothers recognize the term by the lassitude, weakness, loss of appetite, inclination to sleep, heavy breathing, and lack of interest shown by baby. These are the symptoms of sickness. It may be fever, congestion, worms, croup, diphtheria, or scariatina. Do not lose a minute. Give the child Castoria. It will start the digestive organs into operation, open the pores of the skin, carry off the foetid matter, and drive away the threatened sickness.

The Handsomest of New Domestic Rugs Have Arrived

THE new French Weave Wiltons, particularly are more beautiful this year than ever before partly because the imported dyes have given them such rich colors and partly because the new reproductions of famous Orientals are so excellent.

These rugs are as closely woven as it is possible to weave a Wilton rug, they are heautifully designed and colored, and a great pleasureto own. You will find that other high-class, dependable stores sell these same rugs at prices 8%, higher than Macy's.

Macy's prices make their additional worth no more costly than their downright value permits.

I ull line of sizes and designs to match as follows:

ggleyse in 204 in. x26 in geitt in.

Runners 9, 12 and 15 feet long may be had in designs matching some of these rugs. Or rugs in special lengths and widths may be ordered specially.

New Axminster Rugs for Fall

Besides offering a much larger stock of Axminster Rugs than most stores, we offer prices that in many cases are either actually lower than last year's or the same as last year's lowest.

We bought so early and paid so promptly that the increase of rug prices did not affect us, as they have so many stores. The advantage of lower prices and greater assortments must be apparent to

We call particular attention to the Chinese designs. All sizes in these rugs to match.

These goods are fresh, new and perfect. The tile effects are in very pretty combination colors or in blue and white, blue and gray, or tan and blue. The goods are two yards in width, the color extends through to the back. Our retail price has not advanced, although three advances in costs have recently taken place, 69c and 98c the square yard. Carpets

The Carpet Department is showing the largest variety of designs we have ever shown. Many room carpets with borders to match in Oriental patterns, two tone effects, and light ground chintz carpets, that can be made into rugs of any size. These are in Body Brussels and Axminsters of standard grades, and all are 10% less than elsewhere in price. Body Brussels, $1.59 the yard. Axminster Carpets, $1.34 the yard.
